“Alláh-u-Abhá” is an Arabic phrase meaning “God the All-Glorious.” Kitáb-i-Aqdas, Note 33

Bahá'ís are enjoined to repeat this phrase 95 times a day, after ablutions (washing one's hands and face). Since the above song uses the phrase 19 times, one will have sung 95 Alláh'u'Abhás if one sings this through 5 times.
